On this route visitors will have the rare opportunity to taste the outstanding wines made from local grape varieties, dishes and learn about the rural life of locals. The route starts from "Ajarian Wine House", which is located in Khelvachauri municipality, village Ajaristskali, by the side of Khelvachauri-Keda main road. Here visitors can browse through vineyard, get acknowledged to whole process, in halls arranged in the eastern style and designed with traditional Georgian elements, taste local wines, on the middle floor one can taste Georgian and international cuisine From the "Ajarian Wine Houese" route continues along the Batumi-Akhaltsikhe main road, approximately in 10 km, we come to the village Makhuntseti where you can see the Makhuntseti arched bridge and waterfall. On the road and near the waterfall visitors can taste and buy local, high quality honey. In the surroundings of the waterfall there is restaurant, where the visitors can taste bioproducts and meet with the Ajarian cuisine.

Our route from the Makhuntseti continues along the Batumi-Akhaltsikhe main road in the village Pirveli Maisi(same as Saghoreti), where is located Shervashidzeebi's family cellar, here is possible to taste wines of following varieties: Ojaleshi, Chkhaver and Tsolikauri, made in oak barrels. The host has his own farm and can offer to the guests bioproducts and accommodation as well. From the Shervashidzeebi's family cellar the route ends in the village Vaio, where guests can visit 2 family cellars. So called "Makho's cellar" and Lado Shavishvili's family cellar; In these places one can taste locally produced wines: Chkaveri, Tsolikauri

BIRDWATCHING ROUTE

Route type: Hiking, Vehicle Length: 3.5 km.

The main attraction of the route is birdwatching from the Sakdari mountain. From this place it is often possible to see, even with unarmed eye many different migratory bird species. And if you have binoculars with you, you might see them in details. A route starts at the turn of village Shuamta, where is already installed sign of Elza Makaradze's guesthouse. There is a ground road all the way and follows the ascent. It is noteworthy that till the last sign the road is signed with the following mark: "Raptor watchpoint". Approximately after 3 km the ground road ends and the route continues along the slope, with the hiking path, which brings us to the destination point. At the peak of the mountain, which is called Sakdrisi mountain, there is a watchpoint from where birdwatching is possible. From this place you can enjoy amazing panoramic views of the Black Sea at the one hand and beautiful gorge on the other, where migratory birds fly over. There are 5 guesthouses in the village Shuamta: Elza Makaradze, Natia Kont-selidze, Jumber Jijivadze, Enver Tsetskhladze and Nadim Tsetskhladze guesthouses.

Agrotourism/Farmtourism, but it is much broader notion and includes: tourist routes, visiting picnic and camping sites, observing and learning local agricultural practices (agrotourism), getting acquainted with the rural (regional) folklore and ethnographical specificities, healing-health procedures, visiting historically important sites and cultural heritage monuments, etc. Achara has amazingly diverse nature. The travelers interested in rural tourism are offered absolutely different products and services by the different municipalities: visiting Mtirala National Park in Kobuleti; tasting Machakhela honey in Khelvachauri; Chkhaveri grapes and Kokotauri water in Keda; highest quality tobacco in Shuakhevi; famous dry potatoes and braid cheese in Khulo. Region is rich in historic monuments of cultural heritage. Here one can see lots of ancient castles' ruins and ach bridges dating back to Queen Tamar age.

If you wish to peacefully rest in the wilds, get acquainted with the rural life, taste dishes prepared from the ecologically pure products, or degustate family-made natural Georgian wine, visit villages of Achara, where the hospitable and cozy guesthouses will be glad to host you.

The route begins in small town Khulo, continues to the east till Danisparauli Village and follows Batumi-Akhaltsikhe Highway for 22 km. From Danisparauli Village we continue towards the Goderdzi Resort by the same road (2.5 km). Goderdzi Resort is the modern downhill skiing destination established in 2012. Currently it is not functioning at the full capacity. In winter, two cable ways are working. They bring us to the height of 2,330 m. By Batumi-Akhaltsikhe road we get to Goderdzi Pass (5.7 km). Goderdzi Pass is the key point of this route. From here you can continue your journey in three directions:

1. Goderdzi Pass-Mtsvane Lake; the route takes to the north and follows the boundary between alpine meadows and forest cover. It can be passed by the off-road vehicle. The main adornment of this route is temporary Ajarian summer stations and fascinating views. In 6 km we come to the crotch. Turning right from there we can reach the Green Lake by walking path. We also can reach the Green Lake if we follow the automobile road. We can also continue to the north from the Green Lake and return to Danisparauli Village via Didachara. The route can be passed by both, mountain bike and horse.

2. Goderdzi Pass-Beshumi Resort; for 6.5 km we can follow the automobile road. After we pass the summer station Shkernali, we come to the picnic place, where Shuamtoba Fest takes place every first Sunday of August. From here the route brings us to Beshumi resort located at the altitude of 1,850-1,900 m; it starts functioning in mid-June and season lasts till the beginning of September. Here are the lots of cottages and villas. From Beshumi resort you can take the horse-riding and off-road vehicle tours to Bakibako Village

(12 km) and Khikhani Fortress (13 km). 3. Goderdzi Pass-Upper Station of Cable Way; distance - 4.1 km. The route goes through the zone of alpine meadows and from its final point (the adjacent area of upper station of the cable way) opens the fascinating panoramic view. From here you can continue your route to Tkhilvani and Bakibako Villages (13.6 km).
